

*That everyone rises up, that nobody is left behind, not one, not two, but all as one.
(Popol Vuh - Sacred Book of the Mayans)*

□

Vision:

To see the person consciously realized in their life, and be capable of contributing to create an integrated and educated society, based on an intercultural education (Maya education-global education) and other productive activities.

□

Mission:

Cooperate with each person in their human development in harmony with the natural world, facilitate their access to an integral intercultural education and involve them in productive activities.

□

Institutional Objective:

To be an Intercultural Center of teaching and learning in service to the Mayan community.